

Cherilyn MACKRORY

My Priorities for Truro and Falmouth

ENSURING WE LEAVE THE ENVIRONMENT IN A BETTER STATE THAN WE FOUND IT

From tackling single use plastic to supporting renewable energy and nature recovery. I'm determined to help preserve and improve the environment for future generations.

CORNWALL CONNECTED

I will ensure that Cornwall has high speed broadband, mobile phone coverage, excellent rail, road and cycle paths. I will ensure A30 dualling is delivered. Cornwall will not be left behind.

GETTING A FAIR DEAL FOR OUR FARMERS AND FISHERMEN POST BREXIT.

It's vital that we get a fair deal for our farmers and fisherman post Brexit. As the wife of a local hook and line commercial fisherman, I understand how important it is to protect the livelihoods of those in the farming and fishing industry.

General Election: Thursday 12 December 2019

ONLY A MAJORITY GOVERNMENT CAN GET ON WITH THE COUNTRY'S PRIORITIES

John Curtice: Polls teeter between hung parliament and slim Tory majority

THE TIMES

1. ◀ At the end of this election, we'll either get a Conservative majority – or a hung parliament.

2. ▶ A vote for Labour means another hung parliament. With Corbyn propped up by parties like the Scottish Nationalists. And they're demanding ANOTHER referendum to break up Britain. That's five long years of gridlock and uncertainty.

SNP to back Labour government only with Scottish independence vote

REUTERS

Government plans billions for hospital projects

BBC NEWS

End of the soft prison sentence

DAILY MAIL

English schools to get three-year £14bn funding boost

THE GUARDIAN

3. ◀ With your support, a Conservative majority government can get on with the country's priorities.

Better hospitals. Safer streets. Improved schools.
LET'S GET ON WITH OUR PRIORITIES.

 Conservatives

Election Communication
Truro and Falmouth