"The nail in the coffin for me was when Boris Johnson was made leader of the Conservatives. It was clear he was going to take the party and the country backwards. Jo Swinson's Liberal Democrats appealed to me as they clearly have the best vision for a brighter future for Britain."

TRANSFORMING MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

The NHS may be the envy of the world, but our mental health service is not.

People are currently waiting 14 weeks on average - just for an assessment - before support and care has even begun. Problems that can start small, become crises as help is either not available, or arrives late.

The Liberal Democrats have pledged to ringfence funding for mental health and put extra investment into services. They will also ensure services run 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Liberal Democrat Leader Jo Swinson said: "My government will ensure these patients no longer face shamefully long waiting times and are treated with the same urgency as those with physical illnesses."
